C. JOB BARNARD, Justice. Attest: JOHN R. ROUZER, Acting Register of Wills, District of Columbia. IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT of Columbia, holding a special term for Orphans' Court business. In the matter of the estate of Peter Dill, deceased. Administration-No. 8225.—Upon motion of counsel for the caveators in this case, counsel for the caveatees being present and the matter having been argued and submitted to the court, it is, this 9th day of December, A. D. 1898, ordered that the following issues in this case be and they hereby are approved for trial by jury:

1. Was the paper-writing bearing date February 13, 1896, which was filed in this court February 24, 1898, duly executed by the said Peter Dill as and for his last will and testament? 2. If the said paper-writing was executed by the said Peter Dill, was he at the time of such execution of sound and disposing mind and capable of executing a valid deed or contract? 3. Was the execution of said paper-writing procured by fraud exercised and practiced upon the said Peter Dill by the persons named in said paper-writing as executors or beneficiarles, or by any of them, or by any person or persons? 4. Was the execution of said paper-writing procured by the undue influence of any person or persons? 5. If the said paper-writing was duly executed by the said Peter Dill as his last will and testament, did he at the time he executed the same know the contents thereof? A. B. A dispatch from Cleveland, Ohio, last night says: Four thousand people attended a pro-Boer meeting in Gray's Armory this afternoon. There was enthusiastic applause for every expression of sympthy and encouragement for the struggling Boers. An unexpected event in the meeting was the appearance of William J. Bryan, who is in this city for the day as the guest of Mayor Johnson. When the committee in charge of the meeting heard that the democratic leader was in the city an invitation was sent to him and the mayor to attend and address the gathering. Both gentlemen accepted, and when, toward the close of other speeches, Mr. Bryan and Mr. Johnson entered the hall, the whole audience rose en masse and repeatedly shouted the names of "Bryan" and "Johnson," and greeted them with hurrahs and hand clapping.

The audience was composed mostly of men, although a number of women were present. The tri-color of the Boer repub-lics was a prominent feature of the armory's decorations and little streamers were tied in the buttonholes of many of the men. Upon the stage were seven native Boers, who had been in some of the early conflicts of their countrymen against the English soldiers. They were driven from the country and are now residents

August Franz, a local Re-formed Lutheran clergyman, also spoke. When the formal speeches of the after-noon were concluded Messrs. Bryan and Johnson were called upon to address the vast audience, Mr. Bryan spoke for about five minutes, during which time he sald:

. Mr. Bryan said that he considered it a compliment that the Boers looked to the United States for aid and sympathy in their struggle and that he considered it a disgrace that no official expression of sym-pathy had yet been made by this govern-ment. Mr. Bryan believed that the English people are opposed to the continuance of the war, because they, too, are suffering because of the unhappy conflict and are the ones that must bear the burden of cost. track of him. Private search having failed, the police were asked to take the case, and lory, who is a guest at the Holland House here, was talking to Mr. Mallory in Chicago over the telephone, Mr. Mallory sud-denly interrupted her and announced that Allan had just walked into the house on Union avenue, Englewood, Chicago.

From the story told here, it seems that it was the intention to place Allan in a school at Stanford, Conn. Last week he was taken to see the place and announced that he did not care to enter that school. He was not taken seriously, but when he and his moth-er reached New York to make some purchases the lad quietly boarded a train and set out for home. MISS STONE STILL A PRISONER. No Truth in Rumor That She Had Been Liberated. A dispatch from Constantinople yesterday says: The news that the brigands holding Miss Stone captive are being hustled by the inhabitants of the Turkish territory where they are said to be in hiding has created considerable sensation here. A deadly feud is said to exist between the leaders of the hostile bands, some of whom are reported to have deserted and as attempting to reenter Buigaria. Much anxiety is felt here with regard to the outcome of these develpreceding year. The yield of Alaska fell off by about one million dollars; Colorado received news from M. Gargiulo, the drago-man of the legation, who left Salonika for the interior the latter part of last month with the purpose of meeting Miss Stone's captors. Members of the legation say the captors. Members of the legation say the rumors of Miss Stone's release are quite unfounded. No direct news has been received from the American captive since November 13, the date of the last letter from Miss Stone to Mr. Dickinson, consul general at Constantinople, who was then acting as diplomatic agent of the United States at Sofia.

Denver Has a Vigilance Committee. At a mass-meeting of citizens in Denver, Col., yesterday a committee of safety was organized as a protection against criminals, with which the city has been infested for the past year or more. The streets will be patrolled at night by armed citizens, and any person who may fall to give a satisfactory reason for being in the streets will

This action has been made necessary, in the opinon of the citizens, by criminal as-saults on women, hold-ups and robberies, which have been of almost daily occurrence. Magistrates will be urged to impose the severest penalties allowed by law to check the prevalence of these crimes.

The action of yesterday was incited by the murder of fourteen-year-old Harold Fridborn and an assault on his sister on New Year night.
